

Hit The Jack Back By Elaine at Beeton Lawn Bowling

(To be sung to the tune of Hit The Road Jack)

Hit the Jack Back

Don't let them score no more, no more, no more, no more

Hit the Jack Back

And don't let them score no more.

Oh bowlers, oh bowlers, let's hit those greens

You're the coolest bowlers that I've ever seen

Well I guess if you say so,

Just pick up your bowls and throw (that's right)

Hit the Jack Back

Don't let them score no more, no more, no more, no more

Hit the Jack Back

And don't let them score no more.

Now bowlers, now bowlers, I'm just learning to play

Will I be any good one day?

Don't care if you're good, just give it a toss

Sometimes it's a win, sometimes a loss

Well I guess if you say so,

I'll pick up my bowls and throw (that's right)

Hit the Jack Back

Don't let them score no more, no more, no more, no more

Hit the Jack Back

And don't let them score no more.

Don't let them score no more.

Don't let them score no more. NO MORE.
